How do we protect our common Cultural Heritage? What concrete experiences and good examples are there internationally - and what can Sweden learn from it?

Blue Shield Sweden invites you to a seminar on an urgent matter with Professor Peter Stone, President of Blue Shield.

Together with decision-makers, experts, individuals and organisations from cultural and defence sectors, we intend to discuss what enhanced protection could be like in a Swedish context and how increased coordination, both nationally and internationally, is crucial.

Program:

- Welcome and introduction
- Lecture with Peter Stone
- Remarks by Ukrainian colleagues
- Panel discussion with representatives from Swedish authorities involved in efforts to strengthen protection of cultural heritage
- Social gathering

The number of in person seats is limited - registration will be required for in person attendance and to receive the online link.

Kind regards
